Preamble: Why Employee Handbook is Needed

Provide awareness to the employees regarding their rights and responsibilities, thus ensuring employees' alignment and buy-in.

Alignment of our practices with our vision.

Establish and maintain consistent workplace practices.

Continuous support in maintaining the desired organizational culture.

Develop a high-performance culture linking employee performance to the company's goal.

Create an atmosphere of mutual trust and cooperation between employees.

Employee Handbook Guidelines

Scope and Applicability: This handbook applies to all permanent employees of “Mega Motor Company Private Limited”. Contractual employees are governed by their specific contract terms.

Policy Amendments: The company reserves the right to add, amend, or revoke any provisions of this policy at its discretion. Any entitlements mentioned require HR review and approval for processing.

Tax Compliance: All salary, allowances, benefits, etc., are subject to prevailing tax laws at the time of payment or reimbursement, with deductions to be made accordingly.

Policy Review: Policies will be periodically reviewed and revised as necessary to ensure compliance with applicable laws in Pakistan.

HR Compliance: The company ensures that its HR policies align with relevant legal frameworks in Pakistan. For clarification or queries, employees are encouraged to contact the HR department.

HR Policy Philosophy

It is the policy of the company to attract, induct, develop, retain and motivate high-caliber talent who are qualified, capable and willing to contribute their best towards the accomplishment of the company's mission. The guidelines will pursue high standards of Human Resource Management Practices, encompassing the following Employee Cycle.

Attract & Hire

- Ensure equal opportunity for job applicants and employees alike through clearly defined and consistently applied induction standards and a work environment fostering skill and talent development.

Capability Development

- Opportunity for employees to acquire knowledge and develop technical and managerial skills through classroom training and on-the-job development that meets employees and the company's needs.

Performance Management

- A transparent, merit-based Performance Management System and a formal Career Development and Succession Planning System with clear guidelines for career progression based on merit and potential.

Compensation & Benefits

- Align reward policies competitively with top market standards to attract high-quality talent, linking rewards directly to performance and potential.

Diversity & Anti-Discrimination

- Ensure a discrimination-free and harassment-free workplace environment with policies promoting flexible and conducive working arrangements for all employees.

Code of Conduct

We are committed to fostering a respectful, professional, and inclusive work environment for all employees, partners, and customers. This Code of Conduct serves as a guideline to ensure that our values of integrity, fairness, and accountability are upheld in every interaction and decision we make. Whether collaborating with colleagues, engaging with clients, or representing the company, all employees are expected to act in a manner that reflects positively on our culture. By adhering to this Code, we aim to create a safe and productive workplace where every individual is valued, diversity is embraced, and ethical standards are maintained.

A few guidelines for the Code of Conduct are as follows:

1- Conflict of Interest

Definition

A conflict of interest is a set of circumstances that creates a risk that professional judgment and actions regarding a primary interest will be unduly influenced by a secondary interest.

Scope

The policy is applicable to all employees.

Policy Guidelines

- Engaging in any side or extra business with any competitor of the company will be completely unacceptable.
- Accepting gifts that do not adhere to the Gifts and Business Entertainment Policy standards.
- Maintaining a financial interest, either directly or indirectly, or a financial relationship with competitors, suppliers, or customers.
- Participating in business decisions involving a company that employs your spouse or family member.
- Holding a secondary job or consulting arrangement could impact your ability to effectively perform your job responsibilities.
- Receiving personal discounts or other privileges from suppliers, service providers, or customers that are not available to all employees.
- Receiving personal honoraria for services closely related to your job duties.
- Any side hustle, such as teaching in an evening program, should be approved by your HOD and HOD HR.

Procedure

- Individuals must assess whether their circumstances constitute a conflict of interest.

- The situation and interests involved should be disclosed in writing to their HOD and HOD HR.
- The HOD must acknowledge receipt of the disclosure in writing, with a copy to HOD HR.
- The HOD may instruct the employee to refrain from participating in the transaction.
- If any employee becomes aware of any undisclosed interest held by their subordinate or team member, they must promptly report it to their HOD and HOD HR.

If an employee seeks a waiver or is unsure whether a situation constitutes a conflict of interest, they should:

- At the time of joining, the employee should submit a declaration form for any side hustle.
- If not declared at the time of joining and the side hustle starts post-employment signup, the employee should inform their HOD, detailing all relevant circumstances.
- The HOD should then forward these details to the HOD HR.
- HOD HR will review the case, and if relevant, the case should be referred to the CEO.
- The CEO will make a final decision in writing, which will be communicated to the employee.
- A copy of the decision will be retained in the employee's personnel file.

2- Ethics and Business Practices

Definition

To ensure that the company maintains a good reputation by dealing with and being seen to deal with all-out business professionally and acceptably. And to set out the minimum standards expected of the entire team.

Scope

The policy is applicable to all employees.

Policy Guidelines

- Always prioritize the interests of the company and adhere to the company's established standards for environmental, safety, and management practices.
- No employee should engage in or encourage illegal or unethical behavior. Even actions that are ethically sound may be prone to misinterpretation, so it's important to consider whether our actions could potentially harm the organization or not.
- If a proposed action does not pass this scrutiny, seek advice from management.
- Maintaining openness, transparent documentation of actions, and fully disclosing all interests and concerns to HOD are essential for upholding the required standards of conduct.
- Adhere to the policies, procedures, and control guidelines issued by the company periodically.
- Following are a few Dos and Don'ts for ethics and business practices:
  - The laws of Pakistan should be obeyed, and tradition/culture should be respected.
  - The agent/adviser acting on our behalf should be made aware of our ethical values and expectations.
  - Where experience can be useful, participate in the development of legislation and regulation which may affect legitimate interests.
  - Competitive tendering should be adopted wherever possible, with no partiality towards any company.
  - Adequate system of internal control and compliance with Company policies.
  - A prescribed accounting system should be maintained to ensure that all transactions are accurately recorded (no secret assets maintained).
  - The matter needs to be communicated to the HOD or HR if standards of ethical practices are not observed in companies in which the organization has an interest.
  - If an employee is asked to engage in any activity contrary to this policy or he/she finds another employee engaged in such activity, he/ she should report to his/her HOD. If the HOD is engaged, then the employee should report to the Company's HR.
  - Avoid unlawful or unethical payments.
  - Avoid promoting the Company's interest other than legitimately.
  - No political contribution. The company does not support any political party or activity.
  - No employee is allowed to take a representative role vis-à-vis government bodies, trade associations or media unless authorized by the CEO for specific instances.
  - The organization does not give or receive bribes to retain financial advantages.
  - Employees are directed to refuse any demand or offer of such a bribe and report to HOD or HOD HR.

3- Gifts and Business Entertainment

Definition

A Gifts and Business Entertainment Policy establish guidelines for offering, receiving, and managing gifts and entertainment in a business context to ensure ethical practices within business dealings.

Scope

The policy is applicable to all employees.

Policy Guidelines

- Gifts within the context of a business relationship should not be given or accepted if they could influence a business decision or are considered by an impartial observer to be extravagant. It is not company policy to offer gifts other than small value until an exception is approved by the CEO.
- No business gifts should be accepted by employees.
- Modest hospitality during official business can be offered and accepted as part of normal business courtesies, for other than modest prior consultation of the HOD is necessary.

Gifts within the Company

- The company does not, in general, subscribe to gift presentations to its employees. Therefore, gift presentations to employees will be limited to service, programs and to resigned employees, subject to the approval of the CEO.

Business Entertainment

- Hospitality outside business affiliates, e.g. client lunches, business dinners or tickets to events and recreational activities, will require the prior written approval of the CEO.
- Reciprocation should not be automatic, a prior consultation sequence of entertainment should be avoided, and require written approval of the CEO.
- Employees should ensure that subsequent actions are not deemed to be influenced by such hospitality.

Policy Guidelines

- The employee's responsibility is to inform HOD and HR, submit the gifts received and provide details.
- HR will assess the value of all gifts received through a visit to the market/website. (minimum three references)
- After the assessment, HR will decide whether the gift returned to the employee with an email thanking him for keeping up the spirit, arrange an open auction or send the proceeds to an appropriate charity.

- An acknowledgement of receipt shall be shared with the complainant (where identity is known) within 5 working days, confirming that the matter is under review.
- Anonymous complaints will also be reviewed, subject to the availability of sufficient information.

Preliminary Review

Upon receipt, the COC committee shall conduct an initial assessment to:

- Determine whether the concern falls within the scope of the Grievance Redressal Policy.
- Assess the seriousness, potential risk, and urgency of the matter.
- If required, the COC committee may seek legal or compliance input at this stage.

Nomination of Investigation Authority

- The COC committee shall nominate an independent Head of Department (HOD) or a designated Investigation Team to provide advice, assistance, and conduct the inquiry.
- The nominated person must have no conflict of interest and shall act impartially and confidentially.

Investigation Process

- All inquiries shall be carried out through formal proceedings, ensuring fairness, objectivity, and due process.
Both the complainant and the accused shall:
  - Be informed of the allegations (to the extent appropriate).
  - Have the right to be represented or accompanied by a colleague or a friend during meetings, where applicable.
 The investigation may include:
  - Interviews with relevant parties.
  - Review of documents, records, emails, CCTV, or system data.
  - Collection of any other relevant evidence.

Protection Against Retaliation

The nominated person shall ensure that:

- The complainant is not subjected to retaliation, victimization, harassment, or unfair treatment.
- The accused does not create a hostile or intimidating environment or attempt to pressure the complainant to withdraw or influence the complaint.
- Any retaliatory action will be treated as a serious disciplinary offence.

Confidentiality

- All matters related to the complaint shall be handled with strict confidentiality and shared only on a need-to-know basis.
- Breach of confidentiality by any party involved may result in disciplinary action.

Findings and Reporting

The nominated person shall

- Document all findings clearly and objectively.
- Submit a written investigation report to the COC committee, including evidence reviewed, conclusions reached, and recommendations.
- The company reserves the right to take appropriate disciplinary, corrective, or preventive actions based on the findings.

Communication of Outcome

- Where possible and appropriate, the complainant should be informed that the investigation has been concluded and that necessary action has been taken.
- Specific disciplinary details may not be disclosed due to confidentiality obligations.

Appeal

- If the complainant is dissatisfied with the resolution, the committee secretary may escalate the grievance to the senior management for review.
- The senior management may seek advice from independent parties to ensure fair resolution

Record Keeping

- All Speak Up complaints, investigation records, and outcomes shall be securely maintained by the COC committee for audit, compliance, and reference purposes, in line with data protection requirements.

HR Framework

Definition

This framework aims to attract, develop, and retain top talent by integrating fair and competitive rewards, robust performance management, effective talent acquisition, and impactful learning and development initiatives.

Scope

| M2    | BYD Atto 3               |
| M3    | BYD Atto 2               |
| M4    | Toyota Yaris GLI CVT 1.3 |
| PP-1  | Toyota Yaris GLI CVT 1.3 |
| PP-2  | Suzuki Cultus            |
| M5    | Suzuki Cultus*           |
| P1    | Suzuki Alto*             |

*Only for business needs

1.5 – Depreciation of Vehicle: All eligible employees can buy back at 30% of the car's book value after 5 years. Depreciation will be calculated as follows:

| Year | Depreciation | Accounting Dep. | Buy-Back Value |
|------|--------------|-----------------|----------------|
| 1    | 14%          | 14%             | 86%            |
| 2    | 14%          | 28%             | 72%            |
| 3    | 14%          | 42%             | 58%            |
| 4    | 14%          | 56%             | 44%            |

|              |            |            |            |
|--------------|------------|------------|------------|
| 5            | 14%        | 70%        | 30%        |
| Total | 70% | 70% | 30% |

1.6 – If the employee is promoted to a higher tier group or retires, he or she will have the option to purchase the car on payment of the purchase price less depreciation at the rates given in Clause 1.5 above or continue for the full amortization period. Depreciation will be calculated up to the date of promotion or retirement. In the event of an employee's death while in the company's service, his/her family will also have this option. A detailed SOP can be seen in the Annexure C.

1.7 – In case an employee transfers to a different location of the company, the same car will be moved to the new location with the employee.

1.8 – Under the buy-back scheme, the compensation car will be treated as a CAPEX item and will be under the ownership of MMC until the time of buy-back or disposal.

2. Cost Associated at the time of Buy-Back

The employee will be given the option to purchase the car from the company upon completion of five years from the date of delivery and after payment of the following:

2.1 – Book Value (i.e. company's equity) less depreciation at the rates as given in clause 1.5 above.

2.2 – The estimated tax liability based on the market value of the car which the company will be required to pay to the tax authorities (the final account will be settled with the employee after the company's assessment is completed). Any further income tax, capital gain or other tax liability arising from the purchase of the car by the employee will be paid to the company's account by the employee.

2.3 – The process of ownership transfer will be done by the company at the time of buy-back, and the cost related to it borne by the employee.

3. Other Costs Associated with The Car

3.1 – The company will bear the cost of comprehensive automobile insurance, delivery, license plate, book fee, MVT and other registration costs associated with the standard car (excluding income tax). All periodic running and maintenance services on the car will be borne by the company on a standard service of periodic inspection, Engine oil, Oil Filter, AC Filter & Air Filter. These employees are also eligible to get a replacement of all tyres after every 40,000 km for five years.

3.2 – The employee must arrange for the car to be serviced as per the manufacturer's guidelines. These guidelines can be found in the driver's handbook supplied with the vehicle.

3.3 – The driver should ensure that servicing is carried out at the prescribed intervals and that a replacement car does not need to be made available during such servicing. The maintenance request should be submitted in the HRIS system at least two days before the scheduled maintenance date.

3.4 – In the event of a breakdown or mechanical failure, must inform the HR Shared Services department for repair and maintenance. If the repair time is more than 1 week

(7 calendar days), the company will arrange a replacement car. Otherwise, employees can avail of the admin car pick-&-drop facility on a self-pay basis.

4. Benefit Treatment During the Delivery Period

4.1 – Upon entitlement to the compensation car, the company will provide a rental car option until the compensation car is delivered. Depreciation associated with the car will commence from the date of delivery of the car.

4.2 – Upon delivery, the company will issue an authorization letter to their employee along with insurance documents as well as the car’s “Running Paper” and vehicle tax documents.

5. Theft or Total Loss

5.1 – In case of theft or total loss of the car, the company will recover the book value of the car from the insurance claim received from the Insurance Company and the balance, if any, or the value of depreciation allowance as per Clause 1.5 above, whichever will be lower, will be paid to the employee only on completion of the retention period of five years of the stolen/ lost car. The employee will forgo his entitlement if he /she resigns before completion of the said retention period of 5 years.

6. Modifications

6.1 – There will be no modifications allowed in the vehicle, including (but not limited to):

- Installation of CNG kits
- Body modifications like boot spoilers, fenders, bumpers, etc.

7.2 – Employees are facilitated through a fuel card with their respective grade entitlement limits.

7.3 - Fuel allowance can be offered to those who are entitled to an EV car. Employees with EV cars can charge their cars from HUBCO Green stations (selected one), and a deduction will be made from their monthly payroll.

7.4 – The fuel card will be uploaded with the number of liters with actual rate of fuel, which is the amount of fuel used on the day of joining.

7.5 – Employees will have to bear the cost of fuel until their card is received from the vendor.

7.6 – However, no employee is allowed to exceed the limit that he/she has been assigned. In case of business needs, approval of the HOD and HOD HR is required to reimburse extra fuel.

7.7 – In case an employee has a leftover balance at the end of the year (Month of June), the company will reimburse the balance at the prevailing market price, to be disbursed through payroll.

Modification And Interpretation of The Policy

The company reserves the right to modify/terminate this policy, in whole or in part, at any time. This Policy will be administered by the HR department and HOD HR interpretation will be final in case any further clarity is needed.

Probation & Notice Period Policy

Definition

This policy aims to ensure clarity in the onboarding process, setting clear expectations for performance during probation, and providing guidelines for separation to facilitate a smooth transition for both the employee and the organization.

Scope

This policy is applicable to all employees.

Policy Guidelines

Probation Policy

- All newly hired employees will undergo a probationary period, during which their performance and suitability for the role will be assessed. The company reserves the right to extend the probation period, if necessary, based on performance evaluations. Successful completion of the probation period will result in confirmation of employment status.
- The duration of probation is 3 months for all employees.

Notice Period Policy

- Employees are required to provide a written notice if they wish to resign from their position. Similarly, the company will provide the same notice period in the event of termination, except in cases of gross misconduct or as otherwise stipulated in the employment contract.
- The duration of the notice period is 1 month for all employees.

Domestic Travel:

Airport Pick & Drop:

- Employees who have been provided a company-maintained car and fuel are supposed to arrange their own airport pick-up and drop themselves off.
- Employees who are not entitled to a company-maintained car the company will receive a home-to-airport transfer. In case of unavailability of the company car, the employee can be requested to book a ride-hailing service for an airport transfer for travel.
- Personal vehicle parking at the airport is permitted for same-day return only. No additional day will be approved or claimed.

Accommodation:

- The company will bear the employee accommodation cost only (single occupancy), any other cost of family members will be deducted from the employee's payroll at the time of check-out.
- In Karachi, the company guest house will be provided, subject to availability.
- In remote locations or cities without corporate-recommended hotels, travellers are responsible for booking their accommodation and may claim reimbursement for the expenses later.
- Meals refer only to essential meals like breakfast, lunch and dinner.
- Consumption from the hotel's mini bar is not permitted unless complimentary.
- Employees can avail of the laundry services only in case the hotel stay is more than 5 days.

Intra-city Travel:

- Employees who travel intra-city for business purposes will share the pre-defined itinerary with the admin department.
- The admin department will arrange the company car as per availability. In case of unavailability, employees will be recommended by the admin for self-driven cars, rental cars with a driver or ride-hailing services as needed for the trip.
- Employees who have company-maintained cars and plan to visit the Plant Site (Gharo) or the Head Office employees have to use their own cars. However, any additional fuel for the trip can be submitted for a claim to the admin department.
- Employees who are not entitled to the company-maintained car and female staff will be provided with pick-up and drop-off by the company. If the employees wish to use their personal car for the trip, they can also claim the fuel expenses and submit it to the admin department.

International Travel:*Airport Pick & Drop:

- The company will arrange a home-to-airport transfer for all employees. In case of unavailability of the company car, the employee can book a ride-hailing service for an airport transfer for travelling internationally.
- Personal or Company vehicle parking at the airport is not permitted.

Out-of-Pocket Expenses:

- Employees can claim necessary out-of-pocket essential expenses, including meals, local transportation, and a local SIM card.
- The amount can be claimed upon return or an estimated amount in advance over email from the finance team at least 5 working days before travelling, while attaching the issued ticket. The amount will be paid in PKR only.
- The expense amount should be converted into local currency, and employees must retain the official currency conversion slip to gauge the exact exchange rate, whether they convert in their home country or at their travel destination.

Expense Accounting:

- Upon return, the expense settlement is to be submitted to finance over a claim form, along with attaching all original receipts.
- If an amount is taken as an advance for daily expenses, it will be recorded as an outstanding loan against the employee's upcoming salary.
- Expenses must be settled for any advances taken to avoid deduction from the payroll of the month.
- For group travel, any group member can claim reimbursement for shared expenses, either by distributing the total amount among the group or by submitting shared receipts with the percentage breakdown noted on the invoices.
- In cases where business-related intra-city travel is not arranged by the company due to the unavailability of services or open agenda items for the trip, this can be claimed as an additional expense approved by the HOD HR.
- If any special expenses are incurred due to business needs, all such expenses must be documented with original receipts for reimbursement. All claims are to be submitted to the finance department, which shall be approved by the HOD HR & CEO.

Business Attire Policy

Definition

The objective of the policy is to establish clear guidelines for appropriate workplace dress, ensuring a professional image that aligns with the company's values and industry standards. The policy aims to maintain a positive work environment, fostering respect and professionalism among employees, while accommodating comfort and individual expression within acceptable boundaries.

Scope

This policy applies to all employees across all departments and locations of the company except those who are required to wear a uniform as one of their job requirements.

Policy Guidelines

Weekdays: Employees are to be dressed in a formal business dress code in a normal work routine and should ensure it strictly while meeting with external stakeholders, e.g. customers, vendors, suppliers, trainers, etc.

- Men: Formal suit or blazers, long-sleeved dress shirt, dress pants, and closed-toe neatly polished dress shoes. Tie is recommended.
- Women: Properly pressed and starched shalwar kameez, kurta, formal suit, formal shirts and pants with neat shoes.

Fridays and Weekends: Employees can follow the smart casual attire which means dressing professionally, looking relaxed yet neat and pulled together. Colleagues are also permitted to wear jeans and a golf/polo shirt along with a shalwar kameez/kurta with waistcoat (mandatory) and closed-toe shoes.

Special Instructions: Clothing should be clean, pressed and wrinkle-free and care must be taken to maintain personal and oral hygiene.

- Men: Should always keep a formal coat and tie handy in their offices. In the case of ties, the collar button should not be open. Sleeves should not be rolled up. Come properly shaved and trimmed.
- Women: Colleagues should ensure light make-up and their hair should be neatly combed and tied.

Policy Compliance

- Managers are responsible for ensuring that employees adhere to this policy.
- If an employee's attire is an issue, the manager should discuss the matter with the employee in private and guide the necessary course of action.
- In case of escalation, the head of the department should be informed and act accordingly.
- Considering that these are general guidelines, any specific question should be discussed with HR.

Annexure C: Car Buyback | Standard Operating Procedure (SOP)

Objective

To establish a clear process for the buy-back and transfer of company-provided vehicles at the time of an employee's promotion, ensuring transparency, consistency, and smooth transition.

Scope

This SOP applies to all employees eligible for a company car who are promoted.

Procedure

1. Use of the Car Until Handover
  - After the promotion announcement, HR shared services will book the new entitled car PR to procurement.
  - The employee will retain the existing car until the new vehicle is handed over.
  - The HR will ensure no operational gap between the transfer of the old car and the delivery of the new one.
2. Valuation of Existing Car
  - The value of the existing company-provided car will be determined at the time of transfer.
  - Valuation will be based on the company's approved depreciation/valuation method, explained in the car policy.
3. Car Transfer to Employee
  - Upon promotion, the existing car will be transferred to the employee at the agreed book value.
  - The transfer process (legal, financial, and ownership documents) must be completed before the handover of the new car.
4. Financial Settlement
  - The employee must settle the buy-back value of the car through a one-time payment.
  - Final clearance will be processed by the Finance and HR departments.
5. Handover of New Car
  - The new car will be handed over once the transfer and settlement of the existing car are complete.
  - Documentation for the new car will be maintained as per company policy.

Roles & Responsibilities

1. HR Department: Notify eligible employees, coordinate with Finance for valuation and documentation.
2. Finance Department: Finalize car valuation and facilitate payment/settlement process.
3. Employee: Complete financial settlement and ensure the timely transfer of the old car.

End of Document.
